

September - October 2019 Mission:World Questions

1. What BMA missionary is teaching 12 students to read and write in their own language?
2. In what country is there an orphanage with about 120 children where the BMA missionary wants to dig a well because the children go to get water down the hill about 1000 feet at six in the morning for cooking food, drinking and bathing?
3. In what country has the number of scriptural Baptist churches grown from about twenty to thirty-three and the composition of the congregations changed from mostly women and children to half being men because of the use of inductive Bible study and expositional preaching?
4. What people group uses masks to deflect sorcery attacks?
5. In what country are village circular huts made of palm roofs and mud walls called Casa de Mato?
6. In what country has a church led by Bro. Gentle outgrown someone's house where they met and must now rent a place to have services?
7. What missionary is serving on the island of Saint Nicholas?
8. What missionary produces video and print content in the languages of Twi, Fante, Hausa, Ewe, Songhay, Dangbe, Enzima, Yoruba and others?
9. In what country did a man who had been angry and violent with his grown children for becoming faithful Christians, decide to follow the God of his children after his pagan gods failed to keep his brother from dying?
10. In what country is a local cancer institute allowing a BMA missionary to share the gospel of Christ with their patients and the family members of the patients?